

July 2021 - Antisemitism Statement

APA recently released an important statement in response to the increase in antisemitism and related violence in the United States. We wanted to make PAWNY members aware of this statement and situation. For context, we have provided links to two news articles below.

Our September resource blast will focus on the topic of Jewish Mental Health. We look forward to sharing these resources with you and hope that they will assist us all in supporting our Jewish clients, colleagues, friends and family members.
